

A Typical Day in Foundation Stage

8.45am	Classroom doors are opened. The adult accompanying the child comes into the cloakroom and helps hang up his/her coat, change the reading book, and make the lunch choice. Adults can speak briefly to the class teacher if they need to. Children must be brought into the classroom door by the adult and not left unaccompanied in the playground.
9.00am	A bell rings and cloakroom doors are closed and locked indicating that the morning has officially begun. Children arriving after this time are late and come through the main entrance where they must be signed in by the adult accompanying them. The register is taken in class.
